Wofford (5-4, 3-3) at Furman (7-2, 3-2)

The Story Line: Wofford will continue its four-game road trip to close the season as the Terriers visit #6 Furman on Saturday, November 12 . . . The game will be nationally televised on College Sports Television (CSTV) . . . Both clubs are coming off losses as the Terriers dropped a 24-0 decision at Western Carolina on Nov. 5 while the Paladins fell 27-24 at Georgia Southern . . . Wofford will be playing a I-AA nationally-ranked team for the third time this season, having already defeated #14 Georgia Southern and losing to #16 Appalachian State . . . This will mark the ninth Wofford opponent in 10 games that has had a .500 or better winning percentage at kickoff . . . Wofford has won 13 straight games the week following a loss . . . The Terriers' senior class has become the winningest class in school history with 34 wins over the last 3+ seasons.

The Coaches: Wofford head coach Mike Ayers (Georgetown, Ky. '74), the winningest coach in school history, is in his 18th season with the Terriers and has a record of 115-84-1 . . . He is in his 21st year as a college head coach with an all-time record of 126-105-2 that includes a three-year stint as the head coach at East Tennessee State from 1985-87 . . . Ayers has earned Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors five times in the last five years, being so honored by the league coaches in 2000 and 2003 and by the media in 2000, '02 and '03 . . . Ayers was the 2003 recipient of the Eddie Robinson Award as Division I-AA's National Coach of the Year and also earned the 2002 Division I-AA National Coach of the Year award from the College Sporting News (I-AA.org) in addition to being the runner-up for the Robinson Award . . . Between 2002-04, Ayers led the Terriers to a 29-8 overall record and an 18-5 league mark including a conference championship and an appearance in the Division I-AA national semifinals in 2003.

Furman head coach Bobby Lamb (Furman '86) is in his fourth year as the Paladins' head coach and has a record of 31-14 . . . Lamb has led Furman to NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances in two of his first three years . . . Lamb is a former SoCon Offensive Player of the Year as a player before spending 16 seasons as a Paladin assistant coach . . . He was elevated to head coach prior to the 2002 season.

Series vs. Furman: Furman holds a 47-24-7 lead in the series that is the oldest rivalry in South Carolina . . . The Terriers and Paladins played the first-ever college football game in the state when they first met in 1889, a 5-1 Wofford win . . . Since beginning SoCon play in 1997, the Terriers are 2-6 vs. the Paladins . . . Each of the last three games in the series has been won by the visiting team . . . Furman holds a 29-9-5 lead in games played at Furman . . . Bobby Lamb is 2-1 vs. the Terriers while Mike Ayers is 3-11-1 lifetime against Furman including 2-9-1 with Wofford . . . Each of the last three games have been decided by seven points or less . . . Of the seven games prior to 2002, only one was decided by less than 10 points.

Furman, Wofford share rich history: The first football game played in the state of South Carolina was on Dec. 14, 1889 . . . Wofford posted a 5-1 win in a game where the rules were made up before the start of the game . . . Wofford also participated in the first football game played in Greenville in 1890 with the Terriers posting a 2-1 win . . . Furman's first-ever college football win was over the Terriers on Jan. 24, 1891 . . . The two teams have met twice in a season on more than one occasion. . . The Terriers and Paladins played home-and-home same season series in 1889, 1890, and most recently in 1968 and '69 . . . Mike Ayers' 100th career win at Wofford came in a 7-6 win over Furman on Nov. 15, 2003.

Week after a loss: Wofford has won its last 13 games the week after suffering a loss . . . The Terriers have not had back-to-back defeats since falling to South Carolina and Furman late in the 2001 campaign.

Terriers vs. Ranked Opponents: Furman is expected to enter Saturday's game as a top 10 team in the Nov. 7 poll by The Sports Network . . . The Paladins were a consensus #1 last week before losing at #14 Georgia Southern . . . The Terriers are 1-1 vs. ranked opponents this season with a 21-17 win over #14 Georgia Southern and a 49-17 loss at the hands of #16 Appalachian State . . . Since the start of the 2002 season, Wofford is 8-6 against Top 25 teams . . . Wofford is 9-26 all-time against I-AA ranked opponents . . . The highest-ranked team that Wofford has ever defeated in the I-AA ranks is #6 Georgia Southern in 2003 . . . The Terriers also have top 10 wins over #9 Georgia Southern in 2002, #10 Appalachian State in '02 and #9 Western Kentucky in 2003 . . . Last year, Furman entered this game ranked #2 while the Terriers were 12th.

Wofford vs. South Carolina opponents: Wofford is 1-0 against South Carolina foes this season, having posted a 28-10 win at The Citadel on Oct. 29 . . . Since the start of the 2002 season, Wofford is 8-2 against teams from the Palmetto State including contests against Furman, The Citadel and South Carolina State.

Another + .500 Opponent: For the ninth time in 10 games, Wofford is facing a team with a record of .500 or better on the season . . . Each of Wofford's first seven opponents had either had a winning record or a .500 record when facing the Terriers . . . The Citadel was the only sub .500 opponent, having entered the game at 2-5 on the year.

Common Opponents: Wofford and Furman share five common opponents thus far this season . . . Both teams have wins over Elon and The Citadel . . . Wofford defeated Georgia Southern while the Paladins lost to the Eagles . . . Furman defeated Appalachian State while the Mountaineers downed the Terriers last month . . . Both teams have losses to Western Carolina.

Terriers on the Road: Wofford is 1-3 on the road this season, having lost 35-7 at West Virginia on Sept. 10 and 25-13 at Chattanooga on Oct. 1 and posting a 28-10 win at The Citadel on Oct. 29 . . . The Terriers also dropped a 24-0 decision at Western Carolina on Nov. 5 . . . The Terriers have been over .500 in road games in each of the last three years including a 3-2 record in 2004, 4-2 in '03 and 5-2 in '02 . . . Wofford is 13-9 in road games since the start of the 2002 season and 10-4 in road conference games during the same time period.

Wofford Players of the Week: Offense: Punter Chris Tommie, a 6-0, 175-pound freshman from Greenwood, SC (Emerald HS) . . . Tommie averaged a season and career-best 46.5 yards on six punts against Western Carolina . . . He had one punt of over 50 yards and another punt downed at the WCU 9 . . . His lone kickoff went for a touchback . . . Defense: Senior inside linebacker Jim Thurman had seven tackles and a quarterback hurry against the Catamounts . . . Thurman now has 316 career tackles, the third-best total in school history.

Scouting The Paladins: Furman was ranked #1 in the nation last week by both The Sports Network and ESPN/USA Today . . . However, the Paladins' 27-24 loss at #14 (TSN) Georgia Southern on Nov. 5 will drop the Paladins a couple of notches . . . QB Ingle Martin is the SoCon passing leader with an average of 211.2 yards per game . . . He also leads the league in punting with a 42.9 average . . . Furman dropped a 41-21 decision at Western Carolina on Sept. 10 but had won six straight until Saturday's loss at Georgia Southern . . . Furman has won 10 straight home regular season games since the Terriers posted a 7-6 win at Paladin Stadium in Nov. 2003 . . . Since the start of the 2001 season, the Paladins are 27-4 at home . . . Furman is fifth in the nation in total offense this week with an average of 469.7 yards per game . . . Furman also has the nation's eighth-best rushing attack at 241.8 YPG and the #8 scoring offense at 37.44 PPG . . . The Paladins have played a slew of close games this year including four decided by three points or less . . . Two contests, both Furman wins, have gone to overtime.

Strength vs. Strength: Wofford has the nation's fourth-ranked rushing offense at 281.3 yards per game . . . Furman leads the Southern Conference in rush defense, allowing just 160.7 YPG.

Wofford Seniors Cream of the Crop: The Wofford class of 2006 has established itself as the most successful senior class in school history . . . The current crop of seniors are 34-12 during their four years on campus . . . The 2004 seniors went 33-15 during their careers and the '03 seniors were 32-16 . . . The following is a list of all 30-win senior classes:

Grad Class 4 year record

1958	30-11
1972	30-14
1973	32-11
1993	30-16
1994	31-14
2004	32-16
2005	33-15
2006	34-12

Terriers In November: Wofford is 30-23 in November games under head coach Mike Ayers . . . The Terriers are 9-3 in November games since the start of the 2002 season . . . The only November losses, in 2004 and '02, were home games against Furman, and last Saturday's 24-0 loss at Western Carolina.

SoCon Stat Rankings: Wofford is number two in the SoCon in rushing yards per game at 281.3 YPG . . . The Terrier defense is second in the SoCon in sacks with 17 . . . Katon Bethay is fourth in the SoCon with 5.5 sacks this season . . . He is also fifth in tackles for loss with 12 . . . Derek Newberry leads the Southern Conference with three fumble recoveries . . .

Justin Franklin is ninth in the league with 63 tackles . . . FS Brian Ford is second in the league with four interceptions.

National Stat Leaders: The Terriers are fourth in the nation in rushing this week with an average of 281.3 yards per game . . . FS Brian Ford is 15th nationally in interceptions with .44 per game (4 interceptions in 9 games).

Last Meeting vs. Furman: Number 12 Wofford built a 14-0 first-quarter lead before second-ranked Furman rallied for a 31-24 victory in front of a Gibbs Stadium record crowd of 12,042 . . . Terrier quarterback Jeff Zolman was 9-of-12 in the air for a career-high 169 yards . . . He also topped Wofford with 63 yards rushing and a pair of touchdowns . . . Zolman had scoring runs of one and six yards as the Terriers took a 14-0 lead with 1:24 to play in the opening quarter . . . Florida transfer Ingle Martin keyed Furman's comeback by completing 20-of-28 passes for 283 yards . . . His 62-yard completion to Isaac West set up a 6-yard Jerome Felton scoring run on the next play to give the Paladins a 31-24 lead with 2:38 remaining . . . Wofford reached the Furman 27 before an interception with just over a minute remaining sealed the Paladin victory . . . Prior to Furman's game-winning drive, the Terriers recovered a fumble at the Paladin 28 with 5:52 left . . . However, Wofford turned the ball over on downs . . . The Terriers evened the game at 24-24 with 7:10 remaining when Corey Dunn scored on a 4-yard run . . . Two plays earlier, Zolman connected with Matt Beavin on a 73-yard pass . . . The Terriers saw their SoCon-best 13-game home winning streak end.

First SoCon Shutout: The 24-0 loss at Western Carolina on Nov. 5 marked the first time since joining the Southern Conference in 1997 that the Terriers had been held scoreless . . . Wofford has posted one SoCon shutout of its own, blanking The Citadel 13-0 on Oct. 27, 2001.

Smith Named Draddy Trophy Semifinalist: Wofford senior ILB Josh Smith was recently named a semifinalist for the 2005 Draddy Trophy by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (NFF). Known in many circles as the "Academic" Heisman, the Draddy Trophy, is awarded to a senior with a grade point average of at least 3.0 who has demonstrated outstanding football ability and strong leadership and citizenship skills. The award was established to honor former NFF Chairman Vincent dePaul Draddy, a Manhattan College quarterback who founded the Izod and Lacoste brands, and comes with a $25,000 postgraduate scholarship. The 15 finalists will be announced on Oct. 27. Smith, a graduate of Greer Riverside High School, is majoring in biology. He has 19 tackles on the season and 102 for his career as a Terrier. The winner of the award will be announced on December 6 at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City.

Jackson Cracks Rushing Top 10: With 482 rushing yards this season and 1,662 for his career, Gabriel Jackson now ranks among the top 10 rushers in Wofford's I-AA tenure . . . Jesse McCoy (1999-2002) is the Terriers' career I-AA rushing leader with 2,684 yards . . . Jackson's 1,643 ranks him eighth and puts him just 215 yards from cracking the top five.

Streaks: Wofford has won 30 consecutive games when it has rushed for 300 or more yards as a team . . . Wofford has won all four games in 2005 in which it has rushed for 300 or more yards: Georgetown, Ky. (413), Georgia Southern (354), Elon (307), and VMI (441) . . . The Terriers have won four straight coin tosses to start the game . . .

Streak Busters: A couple of streaks came to a halt with Wofford's 24-0 loss at Western Carolina on Nov. 5 . . . The Terrier offense had rushed for a touchdown in 19 straight games dating back to the national semifinal against Delaware in 2003 . . . The Terrier defense had intercepted a pass in six straight games until the Western Carolina contest.

Wofford Stat Notes: The Terriers have intercepted 12 passes this season while throwing just five . . . Chris Tommie's 46.5 punting average against Western Carolina was the best by a Terrier since Jimmy Miner averaged 47.7 yards against Western Carolina on Oct. 18, 2003 . . .

Injury Report: Freshman OT Ben Miller will miss the final five games of the season after undergoing shoulder surgery . . . Sophomore fullback Michael Hobbs suffered a season-ending broken right ankle against VMI . . . Hobbs is Wofford's leading rusher this season with 518 yards in six games . . . Senior free safety Shaun Bennett tore his right Achilles tendon early in an Aug. 21 scrimmage and is out for the year . . . Bennett was attempting a comeback from a torn left Achilles tendon that he suffered in last year's preseason and cost him the entire 2004 season . . . Junior halfback Demetrick Swindler, a 5-10, 175-pound junior halfback, suffered a torn ACL on Aug. 22 and will miss the 2005 campaign . . . TE Justin Pinckney had knee surgery before the season started and is not expected to play this year.

Wofford, Georgia Southern share 3-year supremacy: Over the last three years, Wofford and Georgia Southern have posted the Southern Conference's top records . . . Both teams are 18-5 in conference games during the 2002-04 seasons . . . Over that period, the Terriers are 29-8 overall and Georgia Southern is 27-10 . . . Furman is 24-12 (16-7 SoCon) over the last three years while Appalachian State is 21-13 (16-7 SoCon).

Around the SoCon: Appalachian State can clinch a share of the Southern Conference title with a win over Western Carolina this week . . . The Mountaineers are 6-3 overall and 4-1 in the SoCon . . . ASU finishes the regular season at Elon on Nov. 19 but a win at home this week against the Catamounts assures ASU no more than two league losses . . . Georgia Southern has finished league play at 5-2 while WCU (4-2) and Furman (3-2) remain in the hunt . . . Chattanooga has earned its first winning season since 1997 . . . The Mocs are 6-4 overall and close the regular season at home with Furman on Nov. 19 . . . As many as six SoCon teams could finish the regular season with winning records.

Touchback Tommie: Wofford freshman punter Chris Tommie is also handling the kickoffs for the Terriers this season . . . Tommie had just one kickoff against Western Carolina and it went for a touchback Through the first nine games, Tommie has kicked off 33 times with 26 of those kicks reaching the end zone . . . A total of 17 of his kicks have resulted in touchbacks.

Borders for 3: Wofford WR Adrien Borders has now participated in three sports as a Terrier . . . The senior wide receiver came to Wofford to play basketball and in four seasons at guard, he collected 1,087 points . . . Borders was also a standout in outdoor track, winning the 2003 Southern Conference long jump and triple jump while earning the league's Most Outstanding Field Performer award . . . He is seeing playing time as part of Wofford's corps of receivers this fall.

Noting the Western Carolina game: The Terriers won the toss for the fourth straight game . . . Dan Tavani blocked a punt for the second time this season. It was the fourth time the Terriers have blocked a punt this season . . . Wofford's opponent scored first for the seventh time in nine games this year . . . Chris Tommie attempted his first career field goal as time expired in the second quarter . . . Shiel Wood carried for the first time this season . . . Brandon Berry's third quarter 31-yard punt return was his second-longest of the season . . . Wofford completed its first pass of the day with 6:28 remaining in the game . . . Three different Wofford placekickers missed field goals against WCU . . . Nick Robinson missed from 41 yards in the first quarter . . . Chris Tommie missed from 51 yards on the last play of the second quarter (his first career attempt) . . . Patrick Mugan missed from 36 yards in the third quarter, his first career attempt . . . Wofford's 182 yards of total offense was its second-lowest total of the season, behind the 154 yards at West Virginia . . . Freshman punter Chris Tommie had his best day of the year, averaging 46.5 yards on six punts . . . This marked the first time the Terriers have been shutout in a Southern Conference game . . . The last time Wofford was shutout was a 49-0 loss at Air Force on August 30, 2003 . . . The four sacks by the Wofford defense were the second-most this season. The season-high is 8 against VMI . . . Maurice Faulk recorded a career-high six tackles while Michael Combest had his career-best with three.

Noting The Citadel game: Wofford won its first road game of the season with a 28-10 win at The Citadel on Oct. 29 . . . The win was Wofford's seventh straight over the Bulldogs . . . The Terriers took a 14-0 first half lead, marking the first time since the season opener that Wofford had scored first in a game . . . Katon Bethay's interception was the second of his career . . . Brandon Berry's 27-yard touchdown run marked his second of the season . . . Adrian Young scored his first rushing touchdown of the year . . . Young also logged a career-high 23 carries and a career-best 72 rushing yards . . . DE Layton Baker had an interception and 20-yard return for his first collegiate touchdown . . . It marked Wofford's first interception return for a score since Bethay's interception touchdown on Oct. 16, 2004 . . . The Citadel scored just once (a field goal) on three trips inside the Wofford 20 . . . Berry's three carries marked a career high . . . Fenn Allen had his first career two-reception game and a career-high 24 receiving yards . . . P Chris Tommie tied his career high with six punts.

Noting the Appalachian State game: Wofford suffered a 49-17 defeat at home to Appalachian State . . . The loss ended Wofford's four-game home winning streak . . . Brandon Berry's 36-yard punt return in the first quarter was the longest of the year for Wofford . . . Quarterback Josh Collier posted a career-high with 91 rushing yards and added a touchdown run . . . Wofford's offense rushed for 354 yards, making the Terriers the first team in 59 games, dating back to 2000, to post a 300-yard game on the Eagle defense . . . The win ended Wofford's four-game skid against ranked opponents.

Noting the West Virginia game: Wofford dropped a 35-7 loss at West Virginia on Sept. 10 . . . The Terriers trailed 28-0 before Michael Hobbs scored on a one-yard run with 2:05 to play in the third quarter . . . The score was setup by a 48-yard pass from Josh Collier to Shiel Wood that gave the Terriers a first and goal at the WVU 13 . . . OLB Derek Newberry suffered a grade 3 concussion less than two minutes into the game and was taken off the field on a stretcher . . . Newberry remained overnight in Morgantown for observation and is expected to miss the Georgia Southern game on Sept. 17 . . . Freshman punter Chris Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts with four of those punts covering 50 or more yards including a season-long 60 yarder . . . The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the fewest rushing yards in a game since being held to 88 yards by Air Force in the 2003 season opener.

Noting the Georgetown game: Wofford opened its season with a 34-24 win over NAIA-member Georgetown College on Sept. 3 . . . Wofford rushed for 413 yards, the most in a season-opener since gaining 476 against Newberry in 2002 . . . Two Terriers cleared the 100-yard hurdle as sophomore Michael Hobbs gained a career-high 115 yards and Gabriel Jackson picked up 104 yards including 88 in the first half . . . Senior Corey Dunn collected 94 yards on 15 carries and scored twice including a six-yard run with 1:43 left in the game to cement the win . . . Sophomore quarterback Josh Collier made his first career start and completed four of 17 passes for 35 yards.

Terriers on TV: Wofford will make four TV appearances during the 2005 football season . . . The SoCon opener with Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 was televised live from Gibbs Stadium on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS) . . . The Oct. 22 home game with Appalachian State was also carried live by CSS . . . The Terriers will appear on South Carolina Educational TV on Oct. 29 when they visit The Citadel . . . The Nov. 12 contest at Furman will be carried live nationally by College Sports TV (CSTV).

Wofford Football Illustrated: The weekly TV highlights show, hosted by WSPA-TV sports anchor Todd Summers and featuring Wofford head coach Mike Ayers, airs each Sunday at 12:30 p.m. on WASV, UPN 62 in the Upstate of South Carolina . . . Wofford Football Illustrated airs three times each week on Comcast Cable in Charleston, SC on cable channel 78 on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 8 p.m. . . . In Summerville, WFI can be seen at 9:30 p.m. on Wednesday and 8:30 p.m. on Thursday.

Love to block kicks: Wofford senior defensive back Alex Love blocked a punt against Georgetown that resulted in Wofford's second touchdown of the game . . . The block was the sixth of Love's career . . . In 2004, Love blocked a punt against Georgia Southern and a field goal attempt against Furman . . . In '03, the special teams standout blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown against South Carolina State in the season opener . . . He also added a blocked punt against Appalachian State . . . As a freshman in 2002 Love blocked a punt against Furman.

Recent Wofford-Furman Results

Furman 31, Wofford 24

Nov. 13; Spartanburg, S.C.

Wofford built a 14-0 first-quarter lead before Furman rallied for a 31-24 victory in front of a Gibbs Stadium record crowd of 12,042.

Terrier quarterback Jeff Zolman was 9-of-12 in the air for a career-high 169 yards. He also topped Wofford with 63 yards rushing and a pair of touchdowns. Zolman had scoring runs of one and six yards as the Terriers took a 14-0 lead with 1:24 to play in the opening quarter.

Florida transfer Ingle Martin keyed Furman's comeback by completing 20-of-28 passes for 283 yards. His 62-yard completion to Isaac West set up a 6-yard Jerome Felton scoring run on the next play to give the Paladins a 31-24 lead with 2:38 remaining.

Wofford reached the Furman 27 before an interception with just over a minute remaining sealed the Paladin victory.

Prior to Furman's game-winning drive, the Terriers recovered a fumble at the Paladin 28 with 5:52 left. However, Wofford turned the ball over on downs.

The Terriers evened the game at 24-24 with 7:10 remaining when Corey Dunn scored on a 4-yard run. Two plays earlier, Zolman connected with Matt Beavin on a 73-yard pass.

The Terriers saw their SoCon-best 13-game home winning streak end.

Game 11

Wofford 7, Furman 6

Nov. 15; Greenville, S.C.

The Terriers completed the Southern Conference's first perfect season in five years with a 7-6 win at Furman, giving coach Mike Ayers his 100th victory on the Wofford sideline.

In holding the Paladins without a touchdown at home for the first time since 1992, Wofford's defense set the tone on the game's opening series. Academic All-District inside linebacker Josh Smith stopped Furman fullback Brandon Berry for a 1-yard loss on a 4th-and-2 play at the Paladin 46.

The Terriers then drove 45 yards in 10 plays to score the game's only touchdown as quarterback Jeff Zolman scored on a 1-yard sneak. He also had a 7-yard run on a 3rd-and-7 from the Furman 26. Wofford fullback and student body president J.R. McNair had five carries for 23 yards on the drive.

Wofford held Furman to just two field goals on three possessions in the red zone. Trailing 7-6 with 1:17 to play, the Paladins lined up for a 51-yard field goal. However, a bad snap from center forced holder Jeremiah Van Dora to be tackled by Terrier special teams standout Alex Love.

Terrier punter Jimmy Miner was key in the kicking game. Five of his six punts were downed inside the 20-yard line as Furman's average starting field position for the game was its own 21.

The Terriers limited the Paladins to 111 yards rushing on 45 attempts (2.5 avg.), including just 30 yards on 21 second-half carries.

Freshman Kevious Johnson topped Wofford with 57 yards rushing on seven carries.

Furman 23, Wofford 21

Nov. 16, 2002; Spartanburg, S.C.

Billy Napier's seven-yard touchdown pass to Brian Bratton with 29 seconds to play gave Furman a 23-21 victory over Wofford on a rain-soaked muddy field at Gibbs Stadium.

The Terriers scored 21 fourth-quarter points on 200 yards of offense to take a 21-17 lead on a career-long 41-yard touchdown run by J.R. McNair with 4:41 to play. McNair topped Wofford with 107 yards on 19 carries, his second straight 100-yard game and the second-best performance of his career.

A pair of Terrier fumbles in Wofford territory set up Furman's 10 first-half points. Wofford got on the board with a 17-play, 86-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard McNair scoring run to pull the Terriers within 10-7 with 12:12 to play. Furman regained a 10-point margin just five plays later on a Hindley Brigham 45-yard touchdown run.

A 50-yard run by Jesse McCoy to the Paladin one-yard line on the Terriers' ensuing series set up a one-yard Jeff Zolman sneak on the next play as Wofford closed to within 17-14 with 6:21 remaining.

Following a short Furman punt that was partially blocked by Alex Love, the Terriers regained possession at the Paladin 46. On the second play, McNair went up the middle for 41 yards to give Wofford a 21-17 lead with 4:41 left.

Defensive tackle Anthony Jones had two fourth-quarter sacks to give him a SoCon-leading 14.5 and a new single-season school record.

Furman 45, Wofford 14

Nov. 10, 2001; Greenville, S.C.

Walter Payton Award winner Louis Ivory rushed for 198 yards and four touchdowns to lead Furman to a 45-14 victory over Wofford at Paladin Stadium in Greenville.

Ivory had scoring runs of 13, seven, and 17 yards as the Paladins built a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter. He also added an eight-yard touchdown carry at the close of the third quarter.

Trailing 28-0, Wofford got on the board when Chris Edwards returned an interception 41 yards for a touchdown with 3:20 left in the first half. It represented the third straight season that Edwards has returned a pick for a score. It was also his ninth career interception.

After Furman's Danny Marshall kicked a 39-yard field goal on the final play of the first half, the Paladins put the game away when Brian Bratton returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown.

Melvin Jones had Wofford's other touchdown in the game when he scored on a one-yard run with 9:41 to play. Jones led the Terrier ground game with 72 yards on 21 carries.

Wofford 34, Georgetown, Ky. 24 Sept. 3, 2005 at Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford had two players rush for over 100 yards each and the Terriers piled up 413 yards on the ground in posting a 34-24 win over NAIA-member Georgetown (Ky.) College on Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

Michael Hobbs rushed for 115 yards, Gabriel Jackson added 104 yards and Corey Dunn ran for a pair of touchdowns in leading the Terriers to their fifth consecutive home-opening win.

Dunn scored on a 3-yard run midway through the first quarter to stake Wofford (1-0) to a 7-0 lead. The Terriers extended the lead to 14-0 when Alex Love blocked a Georgetown (0-1) punt and Kyle Horne recovered in the end zone for a touchdown. Jackson rushed for 88 yards on four carries in the first quarter alone.

Love's block was the sixth of his career.

West Virginia 35, Wofford 9 Saturday, September 10, 2005

MORGANTOWN, W.V. – West Virginia gained 511 yards of total offense while holding Wofford to 154 as the Mountaineers posted a 35-7 win at Mountaineer Field.

The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the first time they failed to hit the century mark in a game since Air Force limited Wofford to 88 net yards in the 2003 season opener.

The game was delayed for approximately 10 minutes in the first quarter when senior outside linebacker Derek Newberry was injured and taken off the field on a stretcher. Newberry received a grade three concussion and remained in Morgantown overnight for observation.

Michael Hobbs scored Wofford's first touchdown with 2:05 left in the third quarter when he scored on a 1-yard run. The drive was highlighted by a 48-yard pass from Collier to wide receiver Shiel Wood who made an over the shoulder catch before being dragged down at the Mountaineer 13.

Freshman punter Chris Tommie was a bright spot for the Terriers. Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts including a long of 60.

Wofford 21, Georgia Southern 17 Saturday, September 17, 2005

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford fullback Michael Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns and the Terriers gained 354 yards on the ground in defeating Georgia Southern 21-17 Saturday night at Gibbs Stadium.

Wofford (2-1, 1-0) became the first team in 59 games, dating back to November, 2000, to rush for over 300 yards against the Eagle defense.

Wofford quarterback Josh Collier rushed for a career-high 91 yards and scored his first career touchdown. Georgia Southern (1-2, 0-1), which rushed for 292 yards, was led by quarterback Jayson Foster who carried 15 times for 121 yards and one touchdown. Jermaine Austin, Georgia Southern's fullback, was held to 87 yards rushing, ending a streak of six straight 100-yard games dating back to last season. Austin also lost three fumbles on the night.

The Terriers took a 21-14 lead with 7:41 to play in the third. Hobbs scored his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run. Collier had kept the drive alive when he raced 27 yards on a third and two from his own 38.

Chattanooga 25, Wofford 13 Saturday, Oct. 1, 2005

CHATTANOOGA, TENN. – Chattanooga's Levonte Barber scored two touchdowns as the Mocs posted a 25-13 win over Wofford at Finley Stadium.

Wofford had entered the game averaging 282 yards rushing per game through the first three contests but managed just 228 yards vs. the Mocs.

Wofford safety Dan Tavani broke through and blocked a punt with 10:06 left in the second quarter. Brandon Berry scooped it up and returned it 24 yards to the Chattanooga 5. Corey Dunn scored two players later when he hurdled in from the two to pull the Terriers within one at 8-7. The Mocs led 11-7 at halftime.

Wofford closed the gap to 18-13 with 3:55 left in the third quarter. Michael Hobbs scored on a two-yard run that followed a 59-yard pass from Josh Collier to Colby Harris that put the ball at the 6.

Wofford's Layton Baker intercepted a Miller pass midway through the fourth quarter. The defensive end sniffed out a screen pass and jumped in front of the receiver to give the Terriers the ball at the 43.

Wofford 14, Elon 9 October 8, 2005

SPARTANBURG, SC – On a day when Wofford's offense struggled, the defense stepped up and helped propel the Terriers to a 14-9 Homecoming win over Elon at Gibbs Stadium on Saturday. Wofford's offense managed 337 yards including 307 on the ground but the Terrier defense held Elon to just 212 yards of total offense and provided numerous big plays that put the Wofford offense in scoring position.

Elon took a 2-0 lead with 5:31 to play in the first quarter. Following a Brandon Lane punt that was downed on the Wofford 1 yard line, Elon linebacker Chad Nkang tackled running back Gabriel Jackson in the end zone for a safety. The Terriers took the lead shortly before halftime when Wofford linebacker Justin Franklin recovered an Elon fumble at the 12-yard line with 2:12 to play in the half. Two players later, Michael Hobbs rumbled in from the five to put the Terriers on top 7-2.

Freshman Ben Widmyer replaced Josh Collier at quarterback on Wofford's second possession of the second half and immediately sparked the Terriers to a touchdown. On Widmyer's second play from scrimmage, he handed the ball to Gabriel Jackson who raced 80 yards for a score with 9:24 to play in the third quarter to give Wofford a 14-2 lead. Elon closed to within 14-9 when quarterback Kye Hamilton found Michael Mayers on a 20-yard touchdown pass.

Wofford 38, VMI 23 October 15, 2005

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Wofford rushed for a season-high 441 yards and quarterback Josh Collier threw two touchdown passes to lead the Terriers to a 38-23 win over VMI Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium.

Seven Terriers rushed for 30 or more yards in the game as Wofford (4-2) rushed for its most yards in a game since putting up 476 yards against The Citadel on Oct. 30, 2004. Michael Hobbs rushed for a game-high 85 yards but left the game after fracturing his right ankle late in the first half.

Collier completed five of six passes for 40 yards and threw scoring passes of 13 yards to Matt Beavin and 6 yards to Adrian Young. Collier also scored once on a 1-yard run.

Wofford's defense held VMI to just 47 yards rushing and 307 total offense yards. Nose tackle Katon Bethay led the Terrier charge with nine tackles including four sacks. Linebackers Justin Franklin and Jim Thurman each had interceptions for Wofford.

Wofford 28, The Citadel 10 Saturday, October 29, 2005

CHARLESTON, SC — Wofford's defense scored one touchdown and the Terrier offense rushed for three scores as Wofford defeated The Citadel 28-10 at Johnson Hagood Stadium.

Defensive end Layton Baker intercepted a pass and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown and nose tackle Katon Bethay also intercepted a pass to set up another score to lead Wofford's defense. The Terriers yielded just 107 yards on the ground to the Bulldogs.

Wofford improved to 5-3 overall and 3-2 in the SoCon. The Citadel is 2-6, 1-4.

Adrian Young led the Terriers with 72 yards rushing while Gabriel Jackson chipped in with 69 and quarterback Josh Collier ran for 61 yards.

The Terriers broke to a 14-0 lead in the first half, marking the first time Wofford had scored first in a game since the season opener.

Western Carolina 24, Wofford 0 November 5, 2005

CULLOWHEE, NC – Western Carolina's defense held Wofford to 182 yards of total offense as the Catamounts posted a 24-0 win on Saturday afternoon at E.J. Whitmire Stadium.

The shutout marked the first time the Terriers have been blanked since the 2003 season opener when Air Force posted a 49-0 win. It also marked the first time Wofford (5-4, 3-3) has been shutout in a Southern Conference game.

With the win, WCU improved to 5-3, 4-2 in the SoCon.

"We did some great things on defense and the kicking game," said Wofford head coach Mike Ayers. "Offensively is where we didn't get it done. We had some opportunities for big plays. Those guys are good defensively. They're physical, they're fast and they're sound. They don't give you anything."

Lamont Reid scored three touchdowns for the Catamounts, on runs of 2 and 11 yards and also on a fumble recovery in the end zone.

Wofford “Did You Knows” . . .

- With an enrollment of 1,160 students, Wofford is the smallest school in Division I-A or I-AA football. The SAT average (1247) on campus is higher than the enrollment.
- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest are the others).
- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).
- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100 which makes it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.
- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force football coach Fisher DeBerry.
- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.
- Now in his ninth SoCon season at Wofford, Mike Ayers ranks second behind Appalachian State's Jerry Moore (17 years) in terms of longest tenure for a SoCon coach at their current school.
- An ex-Marine, Ayers is a black belt in karate who teaches a karate class each spring at Wofford.
- Ayers has been inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame at both his high school (Glen Este) and college (Georgetown) alma maters. At Georgetown (Ky.), Ayers competed on the football, baseball, wrestling and gymnastics teams.
- Retired Wofford College president Dr. Joe Lesesne is in his fourth season on the Terrier football staff as a volunteer assistant coach working with the tight ends.

Lesesne retired in 2000 after a distinguished 28-year tenure as just the ninth president in the 150-year history of Wofford. He still teaches a class on the American Revolution.

Lesesne is no stranger to football. Upon arriving at Wofford in 1964 as a history professor, he served four years (1965-68) as an assistant football coach for the Terriers under coach Conley Snidow and later Jim Brakefield. Lesesne also coached one season at Abbeville (S.C.) High School.
- Sixty years ago, Wofford kicking coach Lee Hanning tumbled into the night sky over Normandy as a member of the 101st Airborne in World War II.

Hanning was also involved in Operation Market Garden (depicted in the movie "A Bridge Too Far") where he once again jumped into occupied Holland. While resting and refitting from that operation, his unit was rushed by truck to Bastogne to stem the German counterattack at the Battle of the Bulge. He spent Christmas 1944 surrounded by superior enemy forces in sub-freezing temperatures.

Hanning came to be a member of the 101st when he was in England in the Quartermaster Corps and volunteered for the division.
- Nose tackle Katon Bethay is the only Wofford student-athlete to earn All-SoCon honors in more than one sport.

In addition to being an All-League selection on the gridiron last year, Bethay became the Terriers' first-ever All-SoCon performer in indoor track and field with his efforts in the shot put during the 2003 season.
- Free safety Alex Love qualified for All-SoCon accolades in the 60-meter hurdles for the 2004 Wofford indoor track and field team.
- Wofford sophomore safety Dan Tavani is the son of Lafayette football coach Frank Tavani.
- Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson is a 1959 Wofford graduate and a former All-America wide receiver for the Terriers.

Three Terriers make Academic All-District Team

SPARTANBURG, SC – Three Wofford football players have been named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District III team.

The three include nose tackle Katon Bethay (Milton, Wis.), free safety Brian Ford (Wildwood, Ga./Hamilton Heights Academy) and inside linebacker Josh Smith (Greer, S.C./Riverside).

This marks the third consecutive year that Wofford has led District III in the number of selections to the Academic All-District team. Five institutions had two players selected including Florida State, Florida, Davidson, Elon and Coastal Carolina.

Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior, earned Academic All-District and Academic All-Southern Conference honors each of the last two years. He is a two-time second team All-SoCon player and a preseason All-America by The Sports Network. Bethay has 50 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks this season along with a pair of fumble recoveries and an interception. He carries a 3.48 grade point average in philosophy.

Ford, a 6-3, 195-pound sophomore, is fifth on the squad with 46 tackles this season. He ranks second in the Southern Conference with four interceptions. Ford carries a 3.62 GPA and has not yet declared a major.

Smith, a 6-0, 224-pound senior, was named a semifinalist for the Draddy Award given by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. Smith was an Academic All-District and Academic All-Southern Conference selection each of the last two seasons. He has 24 total tackles including 12 solos, and two forced fumbles this season while carrying a 3.75 GPA in biology.

The Southern Conference had five players chosen to the team while the Atlantic Coast Conference had six selections.

The Academic All-District and Academic All-America teams are selected by the members of the College Sports Information Directors of America. To be eligible, a student-athlete must carry a 3.2 grade point average or higher, be a starter or key reserve, and have achieved at least sophomore status both academically and athletically.

All three Terriers will now have their names placed on the ballot for the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team. That squad will be announced on December 1.

Furman 34, Wofford 21

Saturday, November 12, 2005

GREENVILLE, SC – Daric Carter rushed for two touchdowns and Ingle Martin completed 16 of 24 passes as Furman posted a 34-21 win over Wofford at Paladin Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Wofford (5-5, 3-4) trailed 27-0 before rallying late in the third quarter and outscoring Furman (8-2, 4-2) 21-7 over the last 16 minutes of the game.

Martin threw for 180 yards and threw a 22-yard scoring pass to Patrick Sprague. Carter finished with 68 yards rushing on 12 carries including two scores. Brandon Mays led Furman with 91 yards on eight carries.

Wofford quarterback Josh Collier rushed for a career-best 101 yards and completed a career-high eight passes for 69 yards to lead the Terrier offense. Aaron Johnson had a career-high four receptions for 26 yards.

Furman took the opening drive 80 yards for a 7-0 lead. Tailback Daric Carter scored on a 3-yard run with 11:07 to play in the first quarter.

Furman extended its lead to 14-0 with 1:47 to play in the first quarter when Jerome Felton powered in from the 1. The Paladins had taken possession at the Wofford 44 after a Nick Robinson field goal try was blocked.

Carter scored his second touchdown of the game on a 3-yard run with just 22 seconds left in the half.

After Wofford punted on its first possession of the second half, the Paladins took possession in Wofford territory and settled for a 43-yard Scott Beckler field goal with 11:25 to play in the third. Beckler added a 22-yard field goal with 6:28 to play in the third for a 27-0 lead.

Wofford ended a scoreless streak of nearly seven quarters when Adrian Young bulled in from the one. The drive started at the Wofford 38 when Brian Ford picked off an Ingle Martin pass. The key play was Collier's 33-yard run on a third-and-six that put the ball at the Furman 1.

Patrick Sprague made a sliding catch of a Martin pass for Furman's fourth touchdown of the game. The score, with 8:44 remaining, gave the Paladins a 34-7 lead.

The Terriers took the ensuing kickoff and drove it down the field. Facing a fourth and 1 from the 3, Collier kept it himself and scored, pulling the Terriers to within 34-14 with 6:07 remaining.

Furman turned the ball over on downs at the Wofford 8 with 2:37 remaining and the Terriers inserted freshmen Ben Widmyer at quarterback and Dane Romero at fullback. With Romero ripping off a 25 yard run and Widmyer completing three straight passes, the Terriers quickly drove the Furman 32. From there, Widmyer found another freshman, Andy Strickland, for a touchdown pass that brought the final score to 34-21.

"(Furman) did a good job defending us," said head coach Mike Ayers. "We had some opportunities. We wanted to play keep away. We had a 13-play drive and a 16-play drive then a 3-and-out in the first half. We weren't productive (after missing an early field goal opportunity)."

"We threw the ball much better in the second half."

Widmyer finished the game four-for-four passing for 69 yards and a touchdown.

Romero nicked un 52 vards rushing on five carries.

The Terriers will conclude their season on Saturday, Nov. 19 when they visit Gardner-Webb in a non-conference game.

Wofford (5-5, 3-4 SoCon) at Gardner-Webb (5-5, 2-2 Big South)

The Story Line: Wofford will conclude the 2005 football campaign with its fourth consecutive road game . . . The Terriers will visit Gardner-Webb at noon on Saturday, Nov. 19 in the season finale for both teams . . . The Terriers are coming off a 34-21 loss at #6 Furman on Nov. 12 . . . Gardner-Webb escaped Savannah State, 31-21 . . . This will mark the 10th Wofford opponent in 11 games that has had a .500 or better winning percentage at kickoff . . . The Terriers' senior class is the winningest class in school history with 34 wins over the last 3+ seasons . . . The Terriers are playing for a fourth consecutive winning season and a +.500 record for the sixth time in seven years . . .

The Coaches: Wofford head coach Mike Ayers (Georgetown, Ky. '74), the winningest coach in school history, is in his 18th season with the Terriers and has a record of 115-85-1 . . . He is in his 21st year as a college head coach with an all-time record of 126-106-2 that includes a three-year stint as the head coach at East Tennessee State from 1985-87 . . . Ayers has earned Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors five times in the last five years, being so honored by the league coaches in 2000 and 2003 and by the media in 2000, '02 and '03 . . . Ayers was the 2003 recipient of the Eddie Robinson Award as Division I-AA's National Coach of the Year and also earned the 2002 Division I-AA National Coach of the Year award from the College Sporting News (I-AA.org) in addition to being the runner-up for the Robinson Award . . . Between 2002-04, Ayers led the Terriers to a 29-8 overall record and an 18-5 league mark including a conference championship and an appearance in the Division I-AA national semifinals in 2003.

Gardner-Webb head coach Steve Patton (Furman '77) is in his ninth year as the head coach of the Bulldogs and has a record of 61-35 . . . Patton is in his 13th year as a collegiate head coach and has a record of 91-59-1 including stops at Mars Hill and North Greenville College.

Series vs. Gardner-Webb: Wofford holds a 12-6 lead in the series that began in 1972 . . . The Terriers have won two straight including last year's 49-17 win in Gibbs Stadium and a 1994 win at Snyder Field by a 20-14 score . . . The two squads met every year between 1972-87 before the series was halted for seven years . . . The series is tied at 4-4 in games played at Gardner-Webb but the Bulldogs have won the last three in Boiling Springs . . . The home team has won each of the last eight meetings since Wofford posted a 45-21 win in Boiling Springs in 1981 . . . Head coach Mike Ayers is 2-0 against the Bulldogs while G-W head coach Steve Patton is 0-1 vs. the Terriers . . . SoCon schools are 5-1 against Big South teams this season . . . The SoCon is 15-2 this year in non-conference games against Division I-AA opponents.

Week after a loss: Wofford had won its last 13 games the week after suffering a loss until last Saturday . . . The Terriers had not had back-to-back defeats since falling to South Carolina and Furman late in the 2001 campaign.

Wofford vs. North Carolina opponents: Wofford is 1-2 against opponents from North Carolina this season . . . The Terriers have a 14-9 win over Elon while suffering setbacks to western Carolina and Appalachian State.

Terriers in season finales: Wofford has won three straight regular season finales including last year's 19-18 win over VMI . . . Including a 7-6 win over Furman in the final regular season game of 2003, each of the Terriers' last two finales have been one point wins . . . Wofford has won the final regular season game in 13 of head coach Mike Ayers' 17 seasons.

The Bulldogs will play seven home games this season and are 3-3 at home this year.

Wofford Seniors Cream of the Crop: The Wofford class of 2006 has established itself as the most successful senior class in school history . . . The current crop of seniors are 34-13 during their four years on campus . . . The 2004 seniors went 33-15 during their careers and the '03 seniors were 32-16 . . . The following is a list of all 30-win senior classes:

Grad Class	4 year record
1953	30-11-2
1958	30-11
1972	30-14
1973	32-11
1993	30-16
1994	31-14
2004	32-16
2005	33-15

Terriers In November: Wofford is 30-24 in November games under head coach Mike Ayers . . . The Terriers are 9-4 in November games since the start of the 2002 season . . . The only previous November losses, in 2004 and '02, were home games against Furman.

Three Terriers earn academic honors: Three Wofford football players have been named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District III team . . . The three include nose tackle Katon Bethay (Milton, Wis.), free safety Brian Ford (Wildwood, Ga./Hamilton Heights Academy) and inside linebacker Josh Smith (Greer, S.C./Riverside) . . . This marks the third consecutive year that Wofford has led District III in the number of selections to the Academic All-District team . . . Five institutions had two players selected including Florida State, Florida, Davidson, Elon and Coastal Carolina . . . The Academic All-District and Academic All-America teams are selected by the members of the College Sports Information Directors of America. To be eligible, a student-athlete must carry a 3.2 grade point average or higher, be a starter or key reserve, and have achieved at least sophomore status both academically and athletically . . . All three Terriers will now have their names placed on the ballot for the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team. That squad will be announced on December 1.

SoCon Stat Rankings: Wofford is second in the SoCon in rushing yards per game at 277.7 . . . FS Brian Ford is tied for the league lead with five interceptions . . . Brian Kemp is third in the SoCon with a 22.2 kickoff return average . . . ILB Justin Franklin is eighth in the league in tackles with 7.4 per game . . . Katon Bethay ranks fourth in the conference in sacks with 5.5 and seventh in tackles for loss with 10.5 . . . OLB Derek Newberry's three fumble recoveries is the most in the conference . . . Wofford's eight sacks against VMI is the league-high this season . . . Gabriel Jackson's 80-yard run against Elon remains tied as the longest in the SoCon this season . . . QB Ben Widmyer's four for four passing performance against Furman is the most completions in a game this season without an incompletion . . . Katon Bethay's four sacks against VMI are the most by a Southern Conference defender this season.

National Stat Leaders: The Terriers are fourth in Division I-AA in rushing with 277.7 YPG . . . Brian Ford's five interceptions is tied for the eighth-most in the nation this season.

Last Meeting vs. Gardner-Webb: Kevious Johnson rushed for 132 yards while Jeff Zolman passed for two scores and ran for another as Wofford built a 35-3 halftime lead en route to a 49-17 victory over Gardner-Webb on Nov. 6, 2004 at Gibbs Stadium . . . Aaron Johnson added a 30-yard touchdown toss to Brandon Berry on a halfback option pass as Wofford threw for three scores in a contest for the first time since Mike Ayers' first game as the Terriers' head coach in 1988 . . . In addition to his touchdown catch, Berry also scored on a 30-yard run . . . Wofford ran for 420 yards and totaled 504 in offense . . . Two of the Terriers' touchdowns were on fourth-down plays . . . The seven touchdowns in the game came in the span of nine possessions . . . Wofford held Gardner-Webb to 53 yards rushing on 29 carries . . . The Bulldogs had just 277 yards of offense with 55 coming on a late scoring drive after the Terriers cleared the bench.

Romero breaks out: Recruited as a QB, freshman Dane Romero has been itching to get on the field . . . He has played on special teams in nearly every game this season but has seen limited time at his chosen position . . . With starting FB Michael Hobbs sidelined since suffering a broken ankle against VMI, the Terriers have been searching for a backup to starter Adrian Young . . . Romero got his chance against Furman, carrying five times for 52 yards including a 25-yard run in the fourth quarter.

First SoCon Shutout: The 24-0 loss at Western Carolina on Nov. 5 marked the first time since joining the Southern Conference in 1997 that the Terriers had been held scoreless . . . Wofford has posted one SoCon shutout of its own, blanking The Citadel 13-0 on Oct. 27, 2001.

Smith Named Draddy Trophy Semifinalist: Wofford senior ILB Josh Smith was recently named a semifinalist for the 2005 Draddy Trophy by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (NFF). Known in many circles as the "Academic" Heisman, the Draddy Trophy, is awarded to a senior with a grade point average of at least 3.0 who has demonstrated outstanding football ability and strong leadership and citizenship skills. The award was established to honor former NFF Chairman Vincent dePaul Draddy, a Manhattan College quarterback who founded the Izod and Lacoste brands, and comes with a $25,000 postgraduate scholarship. The 15 finalists will be announced on Oct. 27. Smith, a graduate of Greer Riverside High School, is majoring in biology. He has 19 tackles on the season and 102 for his career as a Terrier. The winner of the award will be announced on December 6 at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City.

Jackson Cracks Rushing Top 10: With 498 rushing yards this season and 1,678 for his career, Gabriel Jackson now ranks among the top 10 rushers in Wofford's I-AA tenure . . . Jesse McCoy (1999-2002) is the Terriers' career I-AA rushing leader with 2,684 yards . . . Jackson's 1,678 ranks him eighth among all Terrier rushers in the Division I-AA era.

Streaks: Wofford has won 30 consecutive games when it has rushed for 300 or more yards as a team . . . Wofford has won all four games in 2005 in which it has rushed for 300 or more yards: Georgetown, Ky. (413), Georgia Southern (354), Elon (307), and VMI (441) . . . The Terriers have won five straight coin tosses to start the game.

Injury Report: Junior DE Josh Dorr suffered a knee injury that may keep him out of action in the season finale . . . Freshman OT Ben Miller will miss the final five games of the season after undergoing shoulder surgery . . . Sophomore fullback Michael Hobbs suffered a season-ending broken right ankle against VMI . . . Hobbs is Wofford's leading rusher this season with 518 yards in six games . . . Senior free safety Shaun Bennett tore his right Achilles tendon early in an Aug. 21 scrimmage and is out for the year . . . Bennett was attempting a comeback from a torn left Achilles tendon that he suffered in last year's preseason and cost him the entire 2004 season . . . Junior halfback Demetrick Swindler, a 5-10, 175-pound junior halfback, suffered a torn ACL on Aug. 22 and will miss the 2005 campaign . . . TE Justin Pinckney had knee surgery before the season started and is not expected to play this year.

Wofford, Georgia Southern share 3-year supremacy: Over the last three years, Wofford and Georgia Southern have posted the Southern Conference's top records . . . Both teams are 18-5 in conference games during the 2002-04 seasons . . . Over that period, the Terriers are 29-8 overall and Georgia Southern is 27-10 . . . Furman is 24-12 (16-7 SoCon) over the last three years while Appalachian State is 21-13 (16-7 SoCon).

Around the SoCon: Appalachian State has clinched the Southern Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs . . . The Mountaineers are 7-3 overall, 5-1 in the conference after a 35-7 win over Western Carolina last week . . . ASU finishes the season at Elon this Saturday . . . ASU leads the I-AA ranks in attendance based on percentage of capacity . . . The Mountaineers are averaging 23,169 fans per game or 139.15 percent of the capacity of Kidd Brewer Stadium . . . The SoCon has three teams in the top 10 in this week's Sports Network poll . . . Furman is ranked fourth, Appalachian State is #67 and Georgia Southern is ranked eighth . . . GSU's Jermaine Austin is the nation's sixth-leading rusher with 127.2 YPG . . . He managed just 87 against Wofford back on Sept. 17 . . .

Touchback Tommie: Wofford freshman punter Chris Tommie is also handling the kickoffs for the Terriers this season . . . Tommie had four kickoffs against Furman with two reaching the end zone and two were onside kicks . . . Through the first 10 games, Tommie has kicked off 37 times with 28 of those kicks reaching the end zone . . . A total of 18 of his kicks have resulted in touchbacks.

Borders for 3: Wofford WR Adrien Borders has now participated in three sports as a Terrier . . . The senior wide receiver came to Wofford to play basketball and in four seasons at guard, he collected 1,087 points . . . Borders was also a standout in outdoor track, winning the 2003 Southern Conference long jump and triple jump while earning the league's Most Outstanding Field Performer award . . . He is seeing playing time as part of Wofford's corps of receivers this fall.

Noting the Furman game: Josh Collier's 101-yard rushing performance was the first by a Terrier since Corey Dunn rushed for 111 yards against Elon on Oct. 8 . . . Aaron Johnson's four receptions against the Paladins tied his career total for catches . . . The senior had three receptions as a junior and one earlier this season . . . Furman's win at home ended a three-year streak of the visitor having won this matchup . . . Wofford's opponent scored first for the eighth time in 10 games . . . Brian Ford recorded his team-leading fourth interception of the season . . . Josh Collier recorded career-highs with 101 rushing yards and eight pass completions . . . Freshman Dane Romero saw his first action of the season at fullback, carrying five times for 52 yards including a 25-yard carry . . . Other career highs included Andy Strickland (2 receptions, 47 yards, 1st career touchdown); Tripp Smith (1st career catch, 16 yards); QB Ben Widmyer (4 attempts, 4 completions, 69 yards and first collegiate TD pass).

Noting the Western Carolina game: The Terriers won the toss for the fourth straight game . . . Dan Tavani blocked a punt for the second time this season. It was the fourth time the Terriers have blocked a punt this season . . . Wofford's opponent scored first for the seventh time in nine games this year . . . Chris Tommie attempted his first career field goal as time expired in the second quarter . . . Shiel Wood carried for the first time this season . . . Brandon Berry's third quarter 31-yard punt return was his second-longest of the season . . . Wofford completed its first pass of the day with 6:28 remaining in the game . . . Three different Wofford placekickers missed field goals against WCU . . . Nick Robinson missed from 41 yards in the first quarter . . . Chris Tommie missed from 51 yards on the last play of the second quarter (his first career attempt) . . . Patrick Mugan missed from 36 yards in the third quarter, his first career attempt . . . Wofford's 182 yards of total offense was its second-lowest total of the season, behind the 154 yards at West Virginia . . . Freshman punter Chris Tommie had his best day of the year, averaging 46.5 yards on six punts . . . This marked the first time the Terriers have been shutout in a Southern Conference game . . . The last time Wofford was shutout was a 49-0 loss at Air Force on August 30, 2003 . . . The four sacks by the Wofford defense were the second-most this season. The season-high is 8 against VMI . . . Maurice Faulk recorded a career-high six tackles while Michael Combest had his career-best with three.

Noting The Citadel game: Wofford won its first road game of the season with a 28-10 win at The Citadel on Oct. 29 . . . The win was Wofford's seventh straight over the Bulldogs . . . The Terriers took a 14-0 first half lead, marking the first time since the season opener that Wofford had scored first in a game . . . Katon Bethay's interception was the second of his career . . . Brandon Berry's 27-yard touchdown run marked his second of the season . . . Adrian Young scored his first rushing touchdown of the year . . . Young also logged a career-high 23 carries and a career-best 72 rushing yards . . . DE Layton Baker had an interception and 20-yard return for his first collegiate touchdown . . . 2005 Wofford Results

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford had two players rush for over 100 yards each and the Terriers piled up 413 yards on the ground in posting a 34-24 win over NAIA-member Georgetown (Ky.) College on Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

Michael Hobbs rushed for 115 yards, Gabriel Jackson added 104 yards and Corey Dunn ran for a pair of touchdowns in leading the Terriers to their fifth consecutive home-opening win.

Dunn scored on a 3-yard run midway through the first quarter to stake Wofford (1-0) to a 7-0 lead. The Terriers extended the lead to 14-0 when Alex Love blocked a Georgetown (0-1) punt and Kyle Horne recovered in the end zone for a touchdown. Jackson rushed for 88 yards on four carries in the first quarter alone.

West Virginia 35, Wofford 9 Saturday, September 10, 2005

MORGANTOWN, W.V. – West Virginia gained 511 yards of total offense while holding Wofford to 154 as the Mountaineers posted a 35-7 win at Mountaineer Field.

The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the first time they failed to hit the century mark in a game since Air Force limited Wofford to 88 net yards in the 2003 season opener.

The game was delayed for approximately 10 minutes in the first quarter when senior outside linebacker Derek Newberry was injured and taken off the field on a stretcher. Newberry received a grade three concussion and remained in Morgantown overnight for observation.

Michael Hobbs scored Wofford's first touchdown with 2:05 left in the third quarter when he scored on a 1-yard run. The drive was highlighted by a 48-yard pass from Collier to wide receiver Shiel Wood who made an over the shoulder catch before being dragged down at the Mountaineer 13.

Freshman punter Chris Tommie was a bright spot for the Terriers. Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts including a long of 60.

Wofford 21, Georgia Southern 17 Saturday, September 17, 2005

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford fullback Michael Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns and the Terriers gained 354 yards on the ground in defeating Georgia Southern 21-17 Saturday night at Gibbs Stadium.

Wofford (2-1, 1-0) became the first team in 59 games, dating back to November, 2000, to rush for over 300 yards against the Eagle defense.

Wofford quarterback Josh Collier rushed for a career-high 91 yards and scored his first career touchdown. Georgia Southern (1-2, 0-1), which rushed for 292 yards, was led by quarterback Jayson Foster who carried 15 times for 121 yards and one touchdown. Jermaine Austin, Georgia Southern's fullback, was held to 87 yards rushing, ending a streak of six straight 100-yard games dating back to last season. Austin also lost three fumbles on the night.

The Terriers took a 21-14 lead with 7:41 to play in the third. Hobbs scored his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run. Collier had kept the drive alive when he raced 27 yards on a third and two from his own 38.

Chattanooga 25, Wofford 13 Saturday, Oct. 1, 2005

CHATTANOOGA, TENN. – Chattanooga's Levonte Barber scored two touchdowns as the Mocs posted a 25-13 win over Wofford at Finley Stadium.

Wofford had entered the game averaging 282 yards rushing per game through the first three contests but managed just 228 yards vs. the Mocs.

Wofford safety Dan Tavani broke through and blocked a punt with 10:06 left in the second quarter. Brandon Berry scooped it up and returned it 24 yards to the Chattanooga 5. Corey Dunn scored two players later when he hurdled in from the two to pull the Terriers within one at 8-7. The Mocs led 11-7 at halftime.

Wofford closed the gap to 18-13 with 3:55 left in the third quarter. Michael Hobbs scored on a two-yard run that followed a 59-yard pass from Josh Collier to Colby Harris that put the ball at the 6.

Wofford's Layton Baker intercepted a Miller pass midway through the fourth quarter. The defensive end sniffed out a screen pass and jumped in front of the receiver to give the Terriers the ball at the 43.

Wofford 14, Elon 9 October 8, 2005

SPARTANBURG, SC – On a day when Wofford's offense struggled, the defense stepped up and helped propel the Terriers to a 14-9 Homecoming win over Elon at Gibbs Stadium on Saturday. Wofford's offense managed 337 yards including 307 on the ground but the Terrier defense held Elon to just 212 yards of total offense and provided numerous big plays that put the Wofford offense in scoring position.

Elon took a 2-0 lead with 5:31 to play in the first quarter. Following a Brandon Lane punt that was downed on the Wofford 1 yard line, Elon linebacker Chad Nkang tackled running back Gabriel Jackson in the end zone for a safety. The Terriers took the lead shortly before halftime when Wofford linebacker Justin Franklin recovered an Elon fumble at the 12-yard line with 2:12 to play in the half. Two players later, Michael Hobbs rumbled in from the five to put the Terriers on top 7-2.

Freshman Ben Widmyer replaced Josh Collier at quarterback on Wofford's second possession of the second half and immediately sparked the Terriers to a touchdown. On Widmyer's second play from scrimmage, he handed the ball to Gabriel Jackson who raced 80 yards for a score with 9:24 to play in the third quarter to give Wofford a 14-2 lead. Elon closed to within 14-9 when quarterback Kye Hamilton found Michael Mayers on a 20-yard touchdown pass.

Wofford 38, VMI 23 October 15, 2005

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Wofford rushed for a season-high 441 yards and quarterback Josh Collier threw two touchdown passes to lead the Terriers to a 38-23 win over VMI Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium.

Seven Terriers rushed for 30 or more yards in the game as Wofford (4-2) rushed for its most yards in a game since putting up 476 yards against The Citadel on Oct. 30, 2004. Michael Hobbs rushed for a game-high 85 yards but left the game after fracturing his right ankle late in the first half.

Collier completed five of six passes for 40 yards and threw scoring passes of 13 yards to Matt Beavin and 6 yards to Adrian Young. Collier also scored once on a 1-yard run.

Wofford's defense held VMI to just 47 yards rushing and 307 total offense yards. Nose tackle Katon Bethay led the Terrier charge with nine tackles including four sacks. Linebackers Justin Franklin and Jim Thurman each had interceptions for Wofford.

Western Carolina 24, Wofford 0 November 5, 2005

CULLOWHEE, NC – Western Carolina's defense held Wofford to 182 yards of total offense as the Catamounts posted a 24-0 win on Saturday afternoon at E.J. Whitmire Stadium.

The shutout marked the first time the Terriers have been blanked since the 2003 season opener when Air Force posted a 49-0 win. It also marked the first time Wofford (5-4, 3-3) has been shutout in a Southern Conference game.

With the win, WCU improved to 5-3, 4-2 in the SoCon.

"We did some great things on defense and the kicking game," said Wofford head coach Mike Ayers. "Offensively is where we didn't get it done. We had some opportunities for big plays. Those guys are good defensively. They're physical, they're fast and they're sound. They don't give you anything."

Lamont Reid scored three touchdowns for the Catamounts, on runs of 2 and 11 yards and also on a fumble recovery in the end zone.

Wofford “Did You Knows” . . .

- With an enrollment of 1,160 students, Wofford is the smallest school in Division I-A or I-AA football. The SAT average (1247) on campus is higher than the enrollment.

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100 which makes it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force football coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

- Now in his ninth SoCon season at Wofford, Mike Ayers ranks second behind Appalachian State's Jerry Moore (17 years) in terms of longest tenure for a SoCon coach at their current school.

- An ex-Marine, Ayers is a black belt in karate who teaches a karate class each spring at Wofford.

- Ayers has been inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame at both his high school (Glen Este) and college (Georgetown) alma maters. At Georgetown (Ky.), Ayers competed on the football, baseball, wrestling and gymnastics teams.

- Retired Wofford College president Dr. Joe Lesesne is in his fourth season on the Terrier football staff as a volunteer assistant coach working with the tight ends.

Lesesne retired in 2000 after a distinguished 28-year tenure as just the ninth president in the 150-year history of Wofford. He still teaches a class on the American Revolution.

Lesesne is no stranger to football. Upon arriving at Wofford in 1964 as a history professor, he served four years (1965-68) as an assistant football coach for the Terriers under coach Conley Snidow and later Jim Brakefield. Lesesne also coached one season at Abbeville (S.C.) High School.

- Sixty years ago, Wofford kicking coach Lee Hanning tumbled into the night sky over Normandy as a member of the 101st Airborne in World War II.

Hanning was also involved in Operation Market Garden (depicted in the movie "A Bridge Too Far") where he once again jumped into occupied Holland. While resting and refitting from that operation, his unit was rushed by truck to Bastogne to stem the German counterattack at the Battle of the Bulge. He spent Christmas 1944 surrounded by superior enemy forces in sub-freezing temperatures.

Hanning came to be a member of the 101st when he was in England in the Quartermaster Corps and volunteered for the division.

- Nose tackle Katon Bethay is the only Wofford student-athlete to earn All-SoCon honors in more than one sport.

In addition to being an All-League selection on the gridiron last year, Bethay became the Terriers' first-ever All-SoCon performer in indoor track and field with his efforts in the shot put during the 2003 season.

- Free safety Alex Love qualified for All-SoCon accolades in the 60-meter hurdles for the 2004 Wofford indoor track and field team.

- Wofford sophomore safety Dan Tavani is the son of Lafayette football coach Frank Tavani.

- Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson is a 1959 Wofford graduate and a former All-America wide receiver for the Terriers.

Wofford 56

at Gardner-Webb 42

Saturday, Nov. 19, 2005

BOILING SPRINGS, NC – In one of the wildest football games in Wofford history, the Terriers built a 34-point second half lead over Gardner-Webb, watched it disappear in less than 15 minutes, and then rallied for an improbable 56-42 win.

Had Gardner-Webb won, it would have been the second-greatest comeback in NCAA Division I-AA history. In 1991, Nevada wiped out a 49-14 third quarter deficit to defeat Weber State 55-49.

Wofford (6-5) led Gardner-Webb 28-0 at halftime, extended the lead to 34-0 midway through the third quarter and continued to lead 41-7 with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter. But Gardner-Webb (5-6) scored the next 35 points to take a brief 42-41 lead before the Terriers recovered for the win.

The Terriers scored touchdowns on four of their six first half possessions.

The Terriers took a 7-0 lead on their first possession of the game when quarterback Josh Collier scored on a 1-yard run. Wofford had driven 80 yards after stopping the Bulldogs and forcing a punt that went into the end zone for a touchback.

The Terriers extended their lead to 14-0 when nose tackle Katon Bethay sacked Bulldog quarterback Nick Roberts, forcing a fumble that was picked up by defensive end Layton Baker and returned 45 yards for a touchdown.

After stopping the Bulldogs on downs, Collier found Shiel Wood for a 43-yard touchdown catch to give the Terriers a 21-0 lead with 8:33 to play in the half.

Just before halftime, the Terriers took a 28-0 lead when Gabriel Jackson ran it in from 35 yards out on a toss sweep left.

Wofford's lead grew to 34-0 when Alex Love blocked a punt attempt midway through the third quarter and Zac Grey scooped it up and returned it 16 yards for a touchdown. The block was the seventh of Love's career. The extra point was missed.

Gardner-Webb scored its first touchdown on a 52-yard touchdown pass from Devin Campbell to Duvaughn Flagler with 4:42 to play in the third quarter.

Filmon Dawkins returned the ensuing kickoff 76 yards to give the Terriers the ball at the GW 23. Collier converted a third-and-10 with a 22-yard run down to the 1 before handing the ball to halfback Anthony Dinardo who scored his first career touchdown. The fifth-year senior is playing his first season of collegiate football after starring at second base for the Terrier baseball team the last two seasons. His 1-yard run put the Terriers on top 41-7.

At that point, the Bulldogs came alive, scoring 35 unanswered points.

George Pressley scored on a 4-yard run with 1:14 to play in the third quarter to make the score 41-14. Wofford quarterback Ben Widmyer was hit and fumbled on the first play following the kickoff and Gardner-Webb recovered at the Wofford 29 yard line. Two plays later, Roberts threw 24 yards to Austin Gaines to cut the Terrier margin to 41-21.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Widmyer dropped back to pass into his own end zone and was hit and fumbled. Jonathan Little recovered the fumble for a touchdown and the PAT pulled Gardner-Webb to within 41-28.

With 8:21 to play in the game, Roberts threw a touchdown pass to Flagler to cut Wofford's lead to 41-35.

With 5:46 remaining, Flagler caught his third touchdown pass of the day on a 13- yard pass from Roberts and Hunter Smith's PAT put the Bulldogs ahead 42-41.

Facing a third and 13 from their own 34 and the momentum clearly in Gardner-Webb's favor, Collier and Wood teamed up for a spectacular play. Collier's rainbow pass was caught by Wood with an over the shoulder grab to give the Terriers a first and goal at the G-W 5. Dane Romero scored on a 1-yard run on third down then bulled over with the 2-point conversion to put the Terriers back on top 49-42.

Roberts again led the Bulldogs downfield, aided by a roughing the passer penalty. Facing third-and-15 from the Wofford 28, Roberts was intercepted at the one by Alex Love with 1:19 remaining in the game.

A rush for no gain by Collier and a 2-yard run by Romero left Wofford with a third-and-eight from its own 3. But Romero turned a simple dive up the middle in to a 97-yard jaunt that put the Terriers on top 56-42.

Romero's 97-yard run was the second-longest in school history. Jack Drawdy holds the record with a 98-yard run against Presbyterian in 1958.

Brian Ford sealed the win with a late interception, his team-leading sixth of the season.

"My head was spinning, my stomach was hurting, it was crazy," said head coach Mike Ayers. "We got the game completely in control and all of a sudden, it's bing, bam, boom, and we couldn't stop them. Fortunately we scored 56 points and had the big run there at the end. We just didn't play well defensively. It was pretty tough. But the great thing is the kids hung tough and came up with what we needed."

"The catch Shiel (Wood) made is one of the best I've ever seen."

With the win, Wofford finishes the year 6-5, earning its fourth consecutive winning season. The Terriers had not posted four straight winning seasons since posting five straight from 1989-93. The win also snapped Wofford's two-game losing streak and marked the fourth straight year that the Terriers have won their season finale.

NOTES

Wofford won the coin toss for the sixth straight game

Layton Baker's 45-yard fumble return for a touchdown was his second score of the season. He also returned an interception for a touchdown against The Citadel.

Sheil Wood caught his first career touchdown pass.

Gabe Jackson recorded his second 100-yard rushing game of the season and the third of his career.

Jason Leventis set a career-high with 15 tackles. His previous career-high was 9 against West Virginia earlier this season.

All five of Chris Tommie's first-half kickoffs went for touchbacks.

Anthony Dinardo scored a touchdown on his first career carry.

Alex Love blocked a third quarter punt, his second block of the year and the seventh of his career.

Wofford's Dane Romero named Southern Conference Freshman of the Week

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford freshman fullback Dane Romero (West Chester, OH/Lakota West) has been named the Southern Conference football Freshman of the Week for his efforts in the Terriers' 56-42 win over Gardner-Webb on Saturday, Nov. 19.

Romero, a 6-1, 190-pound first-year freshman, was playing in just his second game at fullback after moving over from quarterback. Romero carried nine times for 110 yards and two touchdowns along with a two-point conversion. One of his touchdowns came on a 97-yard run that is the second-longest run in school history.

Wofford led Gardner-Webb 28-0 at halftime and 41-7 late in the third quarter. Gardner-Webb then scored 35 unanswered points to take a 42-41 lead with 5:46 to play in the game. Romero, who was Wofford's second team fullback entering the game, scored each of Wofford's next two touchdowns to win the game. The Terriers faced a third-and-goal from the Gardner-Webb 1 before Romero bulled over for the go-ahead score. He then rushed for the two-point conversion to put Wofford back on top 49-42.

Wofford halted the Bulldogs' next possession with an interception and took over at its own 1. Facing third-and-8 from the 3, Romero carried on a simple dive play up the middle and turned it into a 97-yard touchdown, outracing the Bulldog secondary to the end zone.

The 97-yard run was the second-longest in school history and the longest by a Terrier since 1958.

Romero, who started the year as a backup quarterback, moved to fullback in order to backup starter Adrian Young. Young had become the starter when Michael Hobbs suffered a broken ankle against Virginia Military Institute on Oct. 15.

For the season, Romero carried 18 times for 181 yards and two touchdowns.

Katon Bethay named SoCon Co-Defensive Player of the Year;

Two Terriers named to All-Southern Conference team

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford nose tackle Katon Bethay today was named the Southern Conference's Co-Defensive Player of the Year in balloting among the league coaches.

Bethay and offensive tackle Kevin Hodapp were each named to the Coaches All-Southern Conference football team as well.

Bethay earned first team honors as a defensive lineman. Hodapp was a second team selection at offensive tackle.

Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior from Milton, Wis., led the Terriers with 15 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks this season. A second team all-conference pick as a junior, Bethay was the SoCon Defensive Player of the Week following an 11-tackle performance against Georgia Southern on Sept. 17. Bethay is currently fifth in the conference in both sacks and tackles for loss.

He is the second Wofford player in the last three years to earn Defensive Player of the Year honors. Free safety Matt Nelson was the media choice for the award in 2003.

Hodapp, a 6-3, 280-pound senior from Cincinnati, OH (St. Xavier), started all 11 games this season at left tackle. He played an instrumental role in Wofford averaging 283.4 yards per game rushing, the fourth-best team total in Division I-AA. Hodapp was also a second team pick by both the coaches and the media in 2004.

Bethay's all-conference selection marks the seventh straight year that a Wofford defensive lineman has been named to the All-SoCon team. Nose tackle Nathan Fuqua was honored in 1999 and 2000 and defensive tackle Brian Bodor was a first team pick in 2000. Fuqua earned first team honors in 2001 and second team mention in 2002 while defensive tackle Anthony Jones was also a first team choice in '02. In 2003 and '04, Lee Basinger was a first team pick at defensive tackle while Bethay earned second team honors each year of the last two years at nose tackle.

Hodapp is the fourth Terrier offensive tackle honored in the last four years. He follows in the footsteps of J.C. Neel (2001), Jesse Blackburn (2002) and Chad Bentley (2002 and '03).

Wofford's Bethay named first team Academic All-America

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford nose tackle Katon Bethay has been named to the 2005 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America football team, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior from Milton, Wis., carries a 3.48 grade point average in philosophy.

To be eligible for Academic All-America honors, a student-athlete must have a grade point average of 3.2 or higher and must be a starter or important reserve.

The ESPN The Magazine team includes both Division I-A and I-AA players. Bethay is joined on the defensive line by Kyle Kinsell of Davidson, Jordan Richardson of Austin Peay and Chris Daniels of Drake.

Bethay is just the second Terrier football player to earn first team Academic All-America honors. Defensive lineman Brian Bodor was a first team choice in 2000. Defensive lineman Ben Whitney was a second-team choice in 2004.

Bethay led the 2005 Wofford team with 15 tackles for loss (45 yards) and 6.5 sacks for a loss of 33 yards while finishing tied for third on the team with 64 tackles.

Bethay has had a stellar senior season. He was named the Southern Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches and first team all-conference by both the league's coaches and media. He earned SoCon Defensive Player of the Week honors following a season-high 11 tackle performance in a win over #14 Georgia Southern on Sept. 17. He also earned TIAA-CREF SoCon Student-Athlete of the week honors following the GSU game.

Wofford's Katon Bethay earns All-America recognition

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford nose tackle Katon Bethay has been named to the All-America third team by The Sports Network. Bethay is the ninth Terrier to earn All-America honors from The Sports Network since 1997.

Bethay's outstanding senior season has included numerous honors including Co-Defensive Player of the Year by the SoCon coaches, first team All-Southern Conference by the coaches and the media, and first team CoSIDA Academic All-America.

The 6-2, 285-pound senior from Milton, Wis. led the 2005 Wofford team with 15 tackles for loss (45 yards) and 6.5 sacks for a loss of 33 yards.

Bethay was one of 14 Southern Conference players named to The Sports Network All-America team.

In 2004, offensive lineman Eric Deutsch and defensive lineman Lee Basinger were both first team picks by The Sports Network. In 2003, Deutsch was joined on the first team by safety Matt Nelson and offensive lineman Bobby Gibbs. Defensive end Anthony Jones was a first team pick in 2002 while defensive lineman Brian Bodor was a second team selection in 2000. Offensive lineman Dan Williams was the first Terrier honored by The Sports Network, earning first team honors in 1997.

Bethay earns another All-America Award

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford nose tackle Katon Bethay continued his collection of postseason honors as he was named to the All-America first team by the American Football Coaches Association on Wednesday, Dec. 14.

The AFCA is an exclusive All-America team as the group only selects a first team. Bethay was one of just two Southern Conference players honored, along with Furman linebacker William Freeman.

The AFCA has selected an All-America team since 1945 and currently selects teams in all four of its divisions. What makes these teams so special is that they are the only ones chosen exclusively by the men who know the players the best – the coaches themselves.

Bethay is just the third Terrier player to make the AFCA All-America team, joining safety Matt Nelson (2003) and defensive lineman Lee Basinger (2004).

The senior nose tackle led the 2005 Wofford team with 15 tackles for loss (45 yards) and 6.5 sacks for a loss of 33 yards.

He is joined on the AFCA defensive front by Michael Ononibaku of Georgetown, Chris Gocong of Cal Poly and Fred Evans of Texas State.

Bethay, Smith earn football honors

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford football players Katon Bethay and Josh Smith received a little extra in their Christmas stockings this year.

On Tuesday, Bethay was named a first team All-American by the Football Gazette. The 6-2, 285-pound senior nose tackle from Milton, Wis. has now earned mention on four All-America teams including first team honors from the American Football Coaches Association and the Football Gazette as well as third team mention from The Sports Network and Associated Press.

Bethay and inside linebacker Josh Smith were recently honored by the Division I-AA Athletics Directors Association by being named to the Academic All-Star Team. Only 44 players from the I-AA ranks were selected and Bethay and Smith were the only two chosen from the Southern Conference. There were 102 nominees who met the criteria of having a 3.20 or higher grade point average while also being a starter or key reserve.

Bethay has maintained a 3.48 grade point average while majoring in philosophy. Smith, a graduate of Riverside High in Greer, S.C., holds a 3.75 GPA in biology.
